

Strive Racing Presents

The 6th Annual Pine Creek Challenge

October 9th, 2016

Food, Fun, Fellowship, Epic Climbing, Breathtaking Scenery, & lots of SUFFERING!

What: A USAC "fun" ride. One day license available for $10.00. All riders must sign 2016 release form.

Where: East County Mountains of San Diego. Roads are open to traffic.

When: Sunday, October 9th, 2016 - 7:30am – 4:30pm-ish.

Meet: At the Descanso Park-n-Ride at 6:30am.

Directions: Hwy 8 East, exit Hwy 79/Descanso, turn left, under FWY, Park-n-Ride on left.

Registration: Pre-reg at usacycling.org or on-site from 6:30am - 7:00am. Pedal time is 7:30am.

Cost: $30.00 donation pre-reg. $40 on-site. Bring 2016 USA Cycling Event Release Form already filled out.

Support: Fully Supported. Five Aid Stations and post ride meal all included for just $30. Bring a flat tire kit with two tubes. Food and drinks will be served at all Aid Stations and at the finish.

Distance: 101 miles. 10,000' climbing. 20% grades. 6,000' elevation. This is an extremely difficult ride!

Bailout: There are three early bailout options resulting in 38, 71, and 84 mile rides.

Spin: Pine Creek (20% grades), Kitchen Creek (12 miles long), and Engineers Rd. (stunning beauty) are three of the most challenging climbs in San Diego. Put them together in one ride and you have an epic day of insane climbing in the gorgeous East County Mountains of San Diego. See StriveRacing.com for more info!

RSVP: We buy food and need to know if you are coming. Pre-reg or send an email to: info@striveracing.com.

Rider Quote: "I have never done such an epic ride, nor one that was so well supported."
